Description

A very decorative Georgian mahogany cabinet with lion mask handles. With a beautifully figured mahogany front, it features a cupboard and three drawers and is raised on turned legs. The cupboard door features a large lion mask handle along with small lion mask handles to the drawers and brass carry handles to the sides. The cupboard locks and comes with a key. This piece would have probably started life as a commode or pedestal and has been adapted at some point, with a later top and some of the drawers are later additions. Nonetheless a very attractive piece. Construction/Wood: Mahogany Condition Report: This piece would have probably started life as a commode or pedestal and has been adapted at some point, with a later top and some of the drawers are later additions. Some of the beading is a little loose and some filled holes to the sides. Other general wear and marks commensurate with age. Dimensions: Width: 58cm Depth: 54cm Height: 88cm
