Description

Antique oak large draw leaf dining table This Antique oak large draw leaf dining table was made in the 19thc. in the Elizabethan style. It stands on a base with a superb carved bulbous leg to each corner joined by a stretcher, and with a frieze again beautifully carved. The table closes to a good size that would seat 10+ and then you have leaf extensions that pull out each end to make this a table large enough to seat 16+. This is a magnificent oak dining table and will be a centrepiece to any dining room or hall. Imagine entertaining your family and friends around this table and the enjoyment it will bring. This is as good as you will get. 320cms long fully extended 10ft 6ins 198cms closed without leaves pulled out 78ins 89cms wide 35ins 75cms high 29 1/2ins All dimensions are approximate.
