Description

A fabulous pair of silver candlesticks dating from the late Victorian period. These lovely examples are of three quarter height and are of classic wrythen column design, with squared and beaded bases. The terminals feature acanthus decoration and the beaded sconces are removable. The bases are loaded to give stability. Silver candlesticks are always in demand and these wonderful examples are as practical as they are decorative. Postage & Packing contribution :- £25.00 UK. £40.00 Worldwide. Condition :- Very good with no splits, holes or dents. One of the bases has a small bump in the corner, commensurate with age and use. Hallmarks :- Softening but readable. Matching set to the sconces. Maker :- Mitchell Bosley & Co. Date :- Birmingham 1890. Height :- 20 cms. Base dimensions :- 8.3 cms. x 8.3 cms.
