Description

A nice example of a large candle holder dating from the early 20th Century. Salvaged locally from a Devon church. It is made of wood with the original attractive stained finish. It has a large stepped base and simple turned column with a large metal candle holder on top. It is in good condition and displays well. There are some signs of age and use, some minor chips and paint loss and some old splits around the top but nothing detrimental and it is a sturdy piece. The best description comes from the photos so please look at them all carefully and if you have any questions please ask. Free local delivery within 10 miles of Ashburton, Devon. London £40.
