Description

Late C19th Chinese Qing Dynasty carved hardwood low Kang or 'opium' table. Chinese scroll-end 'huali' low table with superbly-executed pierced and carved friezes depicting opposing long-tailed dragons chasing 'the flaming pearl of wisdom'. The solid scrolled-over ends carved in relief with stylised auspicious bat motifs, the scrolled feet with carved details. The table of free-standing form with all-round decoration, to sit in the centre of a room. The inset 'floating' panel top with a gently bevelled or 'fielded' edge. In excellent original condition with no damage, breaks or repairs. The whole table having achieved a consistent rich, mellow patination to the heavy-quality figured timber. Has been cleaned and waxed in our workshops. H 13" W 37" D 18" China c.1890
