Description

I have never come across a stamp box quite like this before, absolutely stunning and highly decorative. The box itself is made from solid Ebony and covered in sterling silver with an extremely ornate all-over repoussé decoration, very organic and Art Nouveau in style. There is a central cartouche on the lid, which could be personalised if desired. There is a brass push button to the front which releases the lid to reveal the three concave compartments for easy retrieval of the postage stamps. Both parts (top & bottom) are hallmarked for London 1905, making this a true Edwardian desk-top piece. The makers mark is also clear for the famed silversmith, Mappin & Webb. Superb condition, measuring 4 1/2" x 3" x 1 1/4" tall. Item ID: 31765
