Description

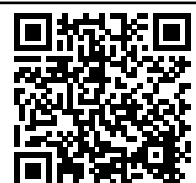

A very elegant vanity jar, this shape to me lends itself perfectly for storing Q-Tips or cotton wool buds in the smartest of bathrooms or dressing rooms. The cut crystal is very simple with multi-faceted vertical cuts making this the perfect choice for either a lady or gentleman. The top is made from solid or sterling silver, the interior having been gilded. A good weight lid with a decorative swirled fluted design with a central oval cartouche to the very top. The lid is hallmarked for London 1895, a true Victorian example; the makers mark G.H.J is also present for the silversmith for George Henry James.
