Description

1937 Omega pocket watch. The watch has a stem-winding movement, 38.5L.T1, which is working nicely. The movement is fully signed and the serial number, 8,428,146, dates it back to around 1937. The watch measures 49mm excluding the winding stem and the loop. The case is stainless steel and it has a very stylish Art Deco design to the back. The case is in lovely condition, as is the lens. The inside of the case back has the Omega triangular mark. The signed dial is in its original finish with original blued steel hands, a subsidiary seconds dial and a metallic gold ring running inside the numbers and markers. The watch will come in a new presentation box.
