Description

Fine William & Mary period walnut and marquetry long-case clock by John Shaw, Holborne*; the eight-day striking movement fitted with a 10 1/2" square brass and silvered dial with a seconds dial, a calendar aperture, pierced hands and finely-cast winged cherub's head spandrels; signed on the chapter-ring. The well-coloured case with panelled and banded sides and the trunk-door and base with marquetry panels of vases-of-flowers, foliage, birds and scrollwork. The turned columns of the hood with gilded bases and capitals, and the flat-topped moulded hood with a (probably later) shallow surmount with holes for three finials. The trunk-door has an oval lenticle in a gilded frame. *John Shaw of Holborn(e) apprenticed in 1672 and a member of the Clockmakers' Company in 1682, of which he was Master 1712 - 15. This clock dates from the last years of the seventeenth century. John Beazor Antiques is a family firm, established in 1875 and based in Cambridge since 1940. We are a traditional antiques shop, but very much in the 21st century. We deal in 18th and early 19th century furniture, barometers and clocks. We choose our stock for its originality and for the quality of its...
