Description

A beautiful mahogany chest of drawers dating from the early 19th Century. Excellent quality and very well made with a lovely rich patina. It has an attractive bow-front and is set on sweeping bracket feet. The drawers have small brass ring handles which, although they are not original, look great and are in-keeping with the style of the chest. The drawers are all oak-lined, they open well and are generally clean and tidy inside. It is in good condition for its age and displays well. There are the usual small signs of wear, some minor marks and old scratches and some minor age related splits in the sides but nothing detrimental. It has been well maintained and as such there are some repairs to the veneer around the drawers and other small repairs. One of the back legs has been repaired and strengthened but overall it is a good sturdy chest now. The best description comes from the photos so please look at them all carefully and if you have any questions please ask. Free local delivery within 10 miles of Ashburton.
