Description

Circa 1910-1920 a tall and beautifully detailed spelter lamp featuring a woman holding a torchere light on a pole. It is in very good condition with no signs of damage or repair. The figure measures 73.5cm in height including the shade, and the original base is 13.5cm high and approximately 21cm in diameter. The glass shade and fitting are original. The lamp was rewired to UK specifications using flex cable and utilises the original 'on/off' switch at the top of the pole, and it will need an up to date PAT test before use. Postage and packing for the UK mainland only is included in the price and for remote areas or abroad please contact us for a delivery quote. Alternatively, collection can be arranged by appointment from SW London, or Esher in Surrey.
