Description

This richly hand-painted Japanese Imari porcelain vase is beautifully decorated with panels painted with floral displays and geometric designs. To the centre there is a larger shaped oval with a similar one on the reverse both delicately painted with a bird sitting in a tree of cherry blossom. All painted in the rich imari pallet and highlighted with fine gilt detail. In good condition with some very slight wear to the gilding. Signed on the base, Circa 1890 £280
