Description

A fine example of a Victorian Tea Caddy made of walnut with intricate pierced brass corner pieces, escutcheon and matching cartouche. Inside it is divided into two sections both lined and complete with their original wooden lid. It is in very good condition for its age and displays beautifully. The exterior of the box has a lovely patina with no major damages and it is generally clean and tidy inside. There are some minor signs of wear and age and some small shrinkage splits on one end but nothing detrimental. It does not come with a key. The best description comes from the photos so please look at them all carefully and if you have any questions please ask. UK Delivery £8, rest of the world £20.
