Description

A remarkable and very fine quality fully fitted LADY'S SEWING BOX in superb condition. The box itself is of finely figured rosewood, unusually inset to the lid with gold-framed cartouches of hair-decorated 'memento' images, one of which is dated 1840, with a vacant oval brass escutcheon below. The lid opens to reveal a stunning array of sewing items; tools and equipment. These include set of six mother-of-pearl cotton reels (many with original cotton!); matching tape measure; waxer and needle-cleaner; set of 12 MOP winders ~ together with a central tray of tools. These comprise: 4 pairs of scissors; 2 silver thimbles; bodkins; stiletto; penknife; tweezers; corkscrew...and a very fine engraved silver pencil by Samson Morden. A very fine Sewing Box indeed. 14ins x 10ins; 5ins high.
