Description

Fine quality antique Edwardian occasional table in mahogany with some intricate inlays in the center of the top & more elsewhere. The inlays are satinwood & some more exotic woods within that central panel. This table is very well constructed, with that extra platform below & the five well shaped legs. This table is in good original condition & I would date it to around the 1890-1910 period. Width - 24", 61 cm Height - 27.2", 69 cm
