Description

Fine and rare pair of Edwardian silver and mother of pearl shell salt cellars. I don't think I have ever seen a pair of salts quite like these before. Oval in shape with round silver bases. The shells have a wavy top edge. There is a tight hairline in one of the shells otherwise good condition. They were made by Arthur Joseph Mason of Birmingham and hallmarked for 1908. SIZE; 4" by 2 1/2" by 2 1/2" high CIRCA; Hallmarked for 1908
