

SA688924

Art Deco vase (daum)

Price

GBP 2,400

| USD $3,272 | EUR 2,801

Item Reference: SA688924

Date of manufacture: 1930

Description

A large unusual glass vase attributed to Verreries D'art Lorrain for Daum, mottled salmon orange coloured glass with white flex blown into a foundation network of rectangular panels formed of small iron rods, iron hoops at top and bottom. When Galle died in 1904 the firm became the leaders of Art Nouveau style, Auguste Daum passed in 1909, Pierre D'Avesn was employed by Daum to design and supervise production of the croismare glassworks near Luneville which Daum took over in 1927 and renamed Verreies D'Art lorrain. Height 30cm Depth 30cm Width 30cm £2400 Contact. 07970119030

Seller Details

Devonshire Antiques

19 Market St Tavistock Devon United Kingdom By appointment only.

Tel: 07970 119030 or 01822 612475

International Tel: +44 7970 119030 or +44 1822 612475

