Description

This pair of beautiful 19th Century French brass framed wall mirrors which feature a stylish scroll design are each topped with a pair of cherubs, have green man face masks to the bottom and to each side with four candle holders. The mirrors are fitted with the original bevelled plates, are a nice size and great to have a matching pair. Frames are cast in heavy brass. Period: 19th Century. Frame Height: 49 cm (19 1/4 inches) approx. Width including sconces: 34 cm (13 1/2 inches) approx. Total weight for the pair: 4.516 Kilos. Condition: Excellent used antique condition with signs of use in keeping with age. Frames have not been over polished so have some natural tarnishing and a nice patina. Some foxing, light fleck marks to mirror. One mirror plate has a small crack in one of the corners.
