Description

An Antique Victorian Sterling silver photograph frame which has been designed as a double heart with a decorative body depicting flowers, leaves and swirls. The blue velvet backing is still in presentable condition and there is an easel stand for support. This pretty silver frame would make a useful addition to a collection and would also make an ideal gift. It was hallmarked in London for 1892 by John Brashier and is still in excellent condition. Each heart would hold a photograph measuring approximately 9.00 cms x 8.50 cms.
