Description

An antique spoon back upholstered armchair for recovering, the sprung seat with serpentine shaped front edge and raised on ring turned mahogany legs with original brass and porcelain castors. A nicely shaped and proportioned chair. It is perfectly solid and no wobbles to the back or arms, the seat will need some additional padding and of course re-covering. I can arrange to have this professionally done by my upholsterer and can also arrange fabric - please contact me for further details. Seat height 37cm
