Description

This beautiful antique large early Victorian 18 ct gold ladies marquise or navette shaped ring is set with 16 natural pearls and five pale angel skin coral stones. Pearls are a gift from mother nature and symbolize purity, innocence, and beauty and coral is made naturally in the depths of the ocean and compliment pearls wonderfully. This early Victorian ring is a fine example and in very condition, it is not hallmarked which is not unusual for jewelry at this time but is guaranteed tested 18ct. Ring size K. Marquise setting measures 2.8 cm x 1.2cm
