

SA689929

Opium pipe

Price

GBP 1,250

| USD $1,688 | EUR 1,463

Item Reference: SA689929

Date of manufacture: Victorian

Description

A 19th century Chinese opium pipe made from carved bone and mounted in silver . The pipe is very nicely carved with dragons, feathers, a figure of a Chinese man with a long beard wearing a gown and clutching a fruit . The mouthpiece is made from horn and is mounted with an embossed silver mount depicting dragons . The fitment bowl is made from wood and ivory. The pipe is in good condition for its age . Opium dens were very popular in the Victorian period in the east end of London and visited frequently by high society people. Contact 07970119030 £1250 Dimensions 47cm length 4cm depth 4cm width

Seller Details

Devonshire Antiques

19 Market St Tavistock Devon United Kingdom By appointment only.

Tel: 07970 119030 or 01822 612475

International Tel: +44 7970 119030 or +44 1822 612475

