Description

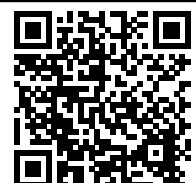

This is a lovely oil on canvas of a Scottish lady. Housed in the original frame, and originating in Dundee Scotland, it bears the framer's ticket verso. It has been framed under glass which has preserved the painting in its original condition. Circa 1860 There is no visible signature, although one may be found on the edge of the canvas covered by the frame. However, I was unhappy about taking it out of the frame to check. The framed painting measures 54cm X 46cm Actual painting measures 35cm X 28cm Payment by Paypal or bank transfer.
