Description

This Georgian mahogany tea table is a very nice light colour, unusually the top and the inside are very similar colour, normally the inside is much darker where it has been closed. This tea table has a scissor action mechanism with a sliding board to lock the legs in Place. There is a wooden sprung clip to hold the back legs in place when closed. This design is particularly sturdy as we have a leg on each corner which is locked. The top has a lip mould, the freeze of the table is finished all round in flame mahogany this piece stands on square OG legs. C1780
