

SA691860

Bronze bust by Georges Van Der Straeten

Price

GBP 975

| USD $1,317 | EUR 1,141

Item Reference: SA691860

Date of manufacture: 19th Century

Description

A charming 19th century small bust of a girl holding a pair of cherries with her teeth .she is wearing a straw hat with a feather and her long hair draping over her shoulder with a lovely bow to her dress at the back .To the base of the bust she is adorned with cherries and leafes . The bust is mounted in a light coloured marble base and is signed on the back of the bronze and also has a foundry mark (Société des bronze de Paris) Though of Belgium nationality the artist lived in Paris for a long time and began exhibiting at the salon in 1885 , he produced a number of portraits some fanciful busts of young women and gracious feminine figures which often evoked the amiable style of 18th century sculptors particularly Watteau . £975 Contact. 07970119030 Dimensions 21cm height 8.5cm width 7.5cm depth

Seller Details

Devonshire Antiques

19 Market St Tavistock Devon United Kingdom By appointment only.

Tel: 07970 119030 or 01822 612475

International Tel: +44 7970 119030 or +44 1822 612475

