Description

This wonderful victorian howard style sofa is covered in original vintage union flags. The right arm drops down to allow for more comfort. It is a Best of British designer sofa. This sofa fronts a new designer company The Best of British Designs it is one the UK's leading suppliers of artwork, artefacts and themed bric-a-brac to the brewery, restaurant and hotel industries, with a reputation for creativity, reliability, customer focus and flexibility. A wonderfully proportioned late Victorian drop end sofa, this delightful example from the period has to each corner tapered supports terminating on there original brass castors, the upholstery within I take to be traditionally coil sprung and overstuffed, this remains very supportive throughout and comfortable to sit at, the sofa has the expected good weight reflecting the period framing, the mechanism to the drop end operates freely and can optionally be adjusted to a number of positions
