Description

A sumptuous example of an antique gate bracelet, in the tradition of the Victorian night and day bracelet - engraved on one side and plain on the other for two different looks depending on the occasion. A timeless classic piece of jewellery. Rendered in pure nine carat rose gold. Marked 9C on the reverse of the padlock and at various points along the length of the bracelet. In very good antique condition. Some of the long straight links in the middle are a little bent out of true but this is not very noticeable when the bracelet is worn. The padlock clicks shut and opens as it should, with a fine safety chain for additional security. Length: 8 inches. Width: 1.2cm. Padlock size: 1.6 x 2.5cm. Weight: 20.4g.
