Description

Good late 18th to early 19th century Georgian stipple engraving of CUPID DIFARM'D BY EUPHROSINE in the manner of ANGELICA KAUFFMAN. I think it is probably the original frame in ebonised wood with gilded decoration. The black and gold mount to the print is reverse printed glass which is nice. Again came from our large private call in March. Condition is OK but there are minor loses to the frame edges and some very minor discolouration to the black glass surround. Great detail. Not easy to photograph behind glass but I done the best I can. PRICE INCLUDES UK POSTAGE COSTS SIZE; 19 1/2" wide by 18 1/2" high CIRCA; 1800
