Description

A fabulous pair of solid nine-carat gold screwback earrings with dangling fobs of the type found on Victorian pocket watch chains. One fob is set with a golden citrine, the other with a deep purple amethyst. The workmanship is beautifully detailed, from the wirework flowers at the top to the cannetille gold decoration on the fob. The earrings are in excellent antique condition, with fully working screws. You can find a short video clip of these earrings on our instagram feed if you're an instafan! Marked 9CT on each screw. Size: 2.5cm drop. The gemstones measure 7 x 5mm. Weight: 4.1g.
