Description

The Holy Grail for collectors of Bateman silver. This rare find is a Bright Cut silver teaspoon, bearing the maker's mark of Peter & Jonathan Bateman. Jonathan Bateman went into business with his Brother and struck a mark in 1790. This mark is found for 5 months and only in 1790, due to Jonathan's untimely death. Peter then set up business with Jonathan's widow, Ann and the Bateman dynasty continued. Due to the extremely limited time that this mark was struck, it has become most sought after by collectors, commanding interest even greater than the matriarch Hester Bateman (Jonathan's mother). The spoon is in Old English shape and has a vacant cartouche to the top front. Dimensions below. Postage and packing £8.00 UK £16.00 Worldwide Condition :- Excellent, with no dents or splits. The bowl tip is very good. Hallmarks :- Clear and readable. Maker :- Peter & Jonathan Bateman. Date :- London 1790. Length :- 11.5 cms. Bowl width :- 2.4 cms.
