Description

This impressive PAIR OF VICTORIAN RED & WHITE STAFFORDSHIRE DOGS, with gilt collars and padlocks and black chains, date from circa 1860. They stand a proud 12.25 inches (31 cm) high, are well-defined and have the most appealing faces. They are in overall good condition with no chips or restoration. There is a crack running under the muzzle of the right side dog (please see close-up photograph). This does not meet over the top of the muzzle. The DOGS are on slightly uneven bases but, once in position, stand well. These are a really special Pair of Staffordshire Dogs. Height: 12.25 inches (31 cm)
