Description

A superb matching pair of Edwardian cut glass scent bottles with solid silver tops. The bottles are excellent quality with beautiful star-cut detailing and a star-cut base. Both bottles have silver collars and bulbous silver tops and come with their original ground stoppers. The interiors are gilded. They are clearly hallmarked for John Grinsell & Sons, Birmingham, 1909. They are also both stamped by the hinge "12920". They are in good condition for their age. There are some small dinks and minor dents in the silver tops but nothing detrimental. There are no cracks or major damages to the glass just some very small surface nibbles and overall both bottles display beautifully. The best description comes from the photos so please look at them all carefully and if you have any questions please ask. Tracked UK Delivery £7, rest of the world £20.
