Description

Very handsome mid 19th.c. rosewood fold over games table c.1850. Stands flat against the wall as a console or side table or turn and open the top to make a table for four people with a red baize playing surface for cards. Highly figured rosewood veneered top with thumb moulded and crossbanded edges over an attractively shaped apron with carved detail. On a splendid acanthus carved column pedestal and carved legs raised on the original brass castors. Minor wear to the top and damage along the fold of the baize (which could be replaced if preferred). Otherwise excellent condition and original colour. Simply cleaned and waxed in our workshops. Dimensions: width 36", depth 18"/36", height 28½".
