Description

Antique Meyer & Studeli silver pocket watch. The watch has a Swiss 15-jewel stem-winding movement, identified as Meyer & Studeli, which is working nicely. The movement is protected by an inner hinged cover. The watch measures 48mm diameter excluding the winding stem and the loop. The case is silver and there are hallmarks inside the case backs for London 1929 with an importer's mark for Arthur Rendell. In 1907, an act came into force which meant that all imported watches had to be assayed in a UK assay office and marked with British import hallmarks. For this, a sponsor's mark was required. In this particular case, Arthur Rendell was an employee, and probably in charge, of the department that handled imported watches at a company called Pringles, the UK's largest wholesalers of jewellery, silverware, clocks and watches, so it was deemed relevant to use his initials. The case has a couple of small knocks to the bezel but otherwise is in good condition and the engine turned detail to the case back is still nice and crisp. The lens is in good condition. The dial has blued steel hands, a subsidiary seconds dial and an outer minute track. There are a couple of short...
