Description

A late Victorian period good quality display cabinet by Maple and Co. Very well constructed in solid mahogany with crisply carved, scrolling detailing throughout in the rococo style. With a pair of glazed doors (lockable with key supplied) which open to access a shelved and lined interior. Offered for sale in very good original condition, with a good colour and patina (note old repair to pediment). Dimensions: Width 91cms Depth 40cms Height 177cms Maple & Co was established by John Maple, a shopkeeper from Horley, Surrey, who later opened a furniture shop in Tottenham Court Road. However it was his son, John Blundell Maple, who made Maples & Co a success. With exceptional business skills, John B. Maple took over the company while still a young man. By the 1880s they were the largest furniture store in the world, exported their fine furniture to every continent. Maples manufactured their luxury furniture entirely in-house, at a huge modern complex. A timber importer and furniture exporter, they landed prestigious contracts furnishing fine houses, hotels, embassies and palaces in Europe; among them Tsar Nicholas's Winter Palace and the Hofburg Imperial Palace in Vienna...
