Description

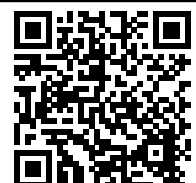

Antique Queen Anne style walnut dining table & six matching dining chairs, all in good original condition & dating from around the 1930's period. The dining table has a burr walnut top, with chamfered corners & solid walnut legs with shell carvings on the tops. The dining chairs have generous proportions, with burr walnut central splats & sides, plus shell carvings on the tops. The two carvers have scroll over arms & all the chairs are chamfered on the backs of the central splats, which is always a sign of quality. The chair legs are solid walnut & also have bold shell carvings which match the table legs. The drop in chair seats have just been re-upholstered in our popular cream natural cotton linen.
