

SA701335

Japanese Carved Ivory Okimono Demons Skeleton Meiji Period

Price

SoldItem Reference: SA701335*Date of manufacture: 19th Century

Description

Meiji Period carved ivory okimono, Japan, circa 1880. A circular group of three tussling demons, a lively skeleton and a frog reaching down a lotus flower. Carved from a large section of thick hollow tusk, an inherent crack in the tusk section has been worked into the design by the carver. In excellent condition with no damage or repair. Height 3,5/8" or 93mm, largest diameter 3,1/4" or 83mm, weight 240 grams. UK and EU sales only.

Seller Details

Andrew Nethercott Antiques

Cardiff Wales United Kingdom

Tel: 07855 851121

International Tel: +44 7855 851121

