Description

This very large French Art Deco Mantle Clock, has an eight day movement, that strikes the hour and each half hour. Various marbles have been used, including those with red and white veining, cream marble and a black marble. On the curved marble base, sit two marble columns, to each side of the clock. The clock face and movement, is encased on four sides with glass. The front glass is bevelled. The front and back glass panels are hinged allowing winding and maintenance. In addition are brass and chrome columns to the front. The chrome Art Deco style numerals are set on a hexagonal copper coloured dial. The clock has just been cleaned and serviced so in good working order. In very good condition.
