Description

Large oil on canvas showing a view of a lake which is signed by the artist Deseri Haine (1900 - 1990). The painting is mounted in a quality gilt frame and is enscribed on the rear dated 1959. Haine was a painter, graphic designer, watercolorist and designer (charcoal). He trained in architecture, drawing and painting and then studied as a surveyor at the Academies of Ixelles (1916 - 1917) and Brussels (1920 - 1921). At 50, he still took lessons at the Académie d'Ixelles. He is known for his portraits, figures, compositions, landscapes, still lifes, flowers and interiors. He painted with a geometric style with a colourful and generous palette. His works are characterized by their serenity, their poetry and their symbolism. He lived and worked in the Netherlands, Germany and France, but established in Auderghem in 1947. Founder of the Rouge-Cloître Landscape School, co-founder of the "Artis Bruxellae" Group. Also collaborated with Alfred Bastien in the restoration of the "Panorama de l'Yser". Haine Works at the Museum of Ixelles and the Museum of Walloon Art in Liège. Dimensions - 102 x 113 cms
