Description

A pair of Berlin painted porcelain plaques of female musicians, circa 1890, one of a kneeling girl playing a harp, the other of a girl standing holding a stringed instrument, within original black moulded composition frames with velvet and gilt slips. The harpist signed 'Bohm' lower right. A very nicely painted pair of plaques in excellent condition. The backs are sealed and have not been opened to check for manufacturers marks, however they are likely to be KPM. 46cm x 38cm including frames.
