Description

A fine example of a French Art Deco Mantle Clock. Contrasting veined marbles of brown, cream and black are used to create this eye catching timepiece. The fan shaped marble, matches the silvered clock face itself, which has a chrome case and chrome Art Deco numerals and hands. Beneath sits a stylised chrome panther, on the marble base, with two marble balls to each side. This is an eight day movement, that strikes each hour and each half hour. It has just been cleaned and serviced and is in very good condition.
