Description

Victorian walnut partners desk Victorian walnut partners desk was made circa 1885 in one of the most prestigious workshops of the day and to be sold in the retail store. It has all the hallmarks of Jas. Shoolbread, Maple & Co. and Hampton & sons of Pall Mall. All were renowned for producing the finest quality furniture for the professional classes and sold in their retail stores. The desk is made in 3 parts which enables you to transport this desk to and around your home with ease. It has the lovely feature of the concave central drawer which would have been an expensive extra as this took a lot of skill and time to make. The top is inset with one of our hand dyed and antiqued leather hide writing surface. To the rear of the desk is a cupboard in each pedestal with a shelf to the interiors. Each drawer is fitted the original brass swing handles. 143cms wide 56ins 76cms deep 29 3/4ins 76cms high 30ins 60cms kneehole height 23 3/4ins 60cms kneehole width 23 3/4ins All measurements are approximate This Victorian walnut partners desk is an item of antique furniture that is a very green product that has not affected the environment we live in.
