Description

An antique Gorravan runner from North Western Iran. These ever popular runners, with their narrow formats, funky naïve designs and saturated organic dyes have become hard to find over the last few years and this example is one of the best. Condition is pretty good for its type, full pile over most of it, traces of wear and corrosion to one end. All side and end finishes original and secure, very straight, deep cleaned, moth proofed and floor ready. Perfect for those tricky narrow hallways. Circa 1910.
