Description

A quality piece of Art Deco furniture made by the prestigious Wolfe and Hollander company. This dressing table and matching stool is made in a beautifully grained walnut and has a black ebony banding along its base. The two side cupboards, each with chrome and phenolic handles, open to reveal three drawers to each side. Each drawer has good chrome period handles. The elegant stool has been recovered in a soft cream leather. The mirror is original and has some foxing in places. A pair of matching bedside cabinets and storage cupboard are listed separately. Having been restored it comes in excellent, showroom condition. The width of the back is 124cm and at the front the width increases to 134cm. The height of the dressing table without the mirror is 69cm. The stool is 70cm high, 46cm deep and 47cm wide.
