Description

Unusual 17th.c. style refectory dining table in pale oak c.1920. Good quality, in solid oak throughout with a 1½" thick top, big enough to seat eight people. Would also make a great side table in a dining room or hall perhaps. Raised on three large turned cup and cover baluster supports with sleigh feet joined with a stretcher at floor level. Excellent colour and condition, with a few old marks to the top. Cleaned and waxed in our workshops. Top is easily removed from the base for delivery. Dimensions: width 32", length 79", height 30½".
