Description

This William IV rosewood side cabinet was made circa 1825. The William IV rosewood side cabinet is fitted a pair of panelled doors that open to reveal full storage and 2 shelves. These side cabinets are so versatile and useful you can use them in many places around your home to store so much and at the same time having a striking piece of furniture. Using fine grades of rosewood for the best visual impact, the cabinetmaker knew this was going to be situated in the areas of a home where visitors and friends were to visit and so the owner would lace the best pieces in these rooms. 97cms wide 38ins 41cms deep 16 1/4ins 89cms high 35ins All measurements are approximate All Antique Sideboards Here This William IV rosewood side cabinet is an item of antique furniture that is a very green product that has not affected the environment we live in.
