Description

~ French - Circa 1925 ~ ~~ Excellent condition, fully working ~~ A stunning and rare clock by the well known sculptor Pierre Segal. It features a charming scene of a girl holding a bird aloft to save it from her two large and playful dogs. Beautifully modelled in coloured and patinated white metal. The clock case is veneered in the most fantastic early celluloid, piano black, mottled green and faux mother of pearl. The dial is matted gold, screen printed with stylised elongated numerals and complete with it's original square form blued steel hands. The superb bronze half moon bezel is fitted with the original bevelled glass. The French movement is of excellent quality and is by Japy Freres. It is a traditional 'Pendule de Paris' movement with a pendulum. It is in excellent clean and running condition. Pendulum is original. It runs for 8 days and strikes the hours and halves on a bell. We have a video of the clock, please ask and we will send you a link. Condition of the case is very good. The celluloid veneer has some shrinkage cracks and gaps and some slight marks. The original finish of the metal work has worn and faded to a lovely patina over time. The glass is exc...
