Description

An eye-catching tin-plate racing car toy of impressive size — please see images with wine bottle for scale. This stunning model is in an honest original condition having a cut-out style driver, red & silver coachwork, and the original key. The mechanism works perfectly when the key is wound, and the car propels forwards just as designed. This wonderful toy, so redolent of the Art Deco era, is English, dating from c1930.
