Description

A beautiful mahogany chest of drawers dating from the early 19th Century. Excellent quality and very well made with a lovely rich patina and attractive flame mahogany drawer fronts. The drawers have turned wooden knobs and it is set on sweeping bracket feet with a shaped apron. It is in excellent condition for its age. The drawers open well, having recently had the runners restored and are generally clean and tidy inside with just a few old marks and stains. There are the usual small signs of wear, some minor old marks and there have been some repairs to veneer chips around the drawers and on the back corner but nothing untoward or detrimental. The back is clean and sturdy. The best description comes from the photos so please look at them all carefully and if you have any questions please ask.
