Description

A fine example of a large sterling silver bowl with twin handles and a round footed base. It has stylised triangular pieces over the handles and a reeded band around the bowl. It is stylish and good quality, weighing approximately 237g. It is hallmarked for Sibray Hall & Co, London, 1906. It is in good condition. There are no major damages and it displays beautifully. There are some light internal surface marks and scratches (see photo) and a few light surface marks and minor dinks but nothing detrimental and it displays well. It has been gently cleaned and polished is ready for use. The best description comes from the photos so please look at them all carefully and if you have any questions please ask. Tracked UK Delivery £6, rest of the world £15.
